According to our records, delinquent personal property taxes in the amount of $- are outstanding for property owned by or located at your business location, South Carolina Department of Revenue Reference ID: -. Multiple tax notices have been sent to the address of record, which is the address indicated above, and because the account has remained unpaid our office is providing this final notice to request that the above mentioned amount be paid immediately.

If you believe this debt to be in error or if your business has been permanently closed, please contact the South Carolina Department of Revenue at (803) 898-5222, Option 2 or www.DOR.SC.gov/bpp to file the appropriate paperwork. You may also need to contact the Colleton County Auditor's Office to ensure their records reflect accurate information and all relevant documentation has been acknowledged.

Payments will be accepted in person at our Treasurer's Office or by mail at the address above until March 15, 2019. Include on the check your phone number and the property identification number (PIN) above, and make payable to Colleton County Treasurer. Be advised that we are required to provide notice of delinquent taxes through multiple avenues prior to submitting a debt for collection through an outside agency.

If the taxes remain outstanding after March 15, 2019 please accept this notification of our intent to submit this debt for collection. Colleton County has contracted with American Financial Credit Services (AFCS), a collection agency, for the purposes of collecting delinquent taxes, pursuant to South Carolina §12-4-340.
