COLLETON COUNTY PROBATE COURT
ASHLEY H. AMUNDSON
Probate Judge

Please accept our sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. We want to do all that we can to make the probate process as simple as possible for you. Below is some basic information regarding the probate process, and attached to this letter are several documents that we hope will be helpful as you open the estate of your loved one.

DO I NEED TO OPEN AN ESTATE?

1. Regular Estate. If your loved one owned any real property (home, real estate) of any value, or if he/she owned personal property (boat, car, mobile home, jewelry, furniture, etc.) worth more than $25,000, someone will need to open a regular estate.
2. Small Estate. If the total value of your loved one’s belongings is less than $25,000, and if no real property is involved, someone may file a small estate affidavit.
3. Estate for Legal Actions. Even if your loved one had no belongings, an estate may need to be opened to take legal action (examples include medical malpractice cases, wrongful death cases).

If there is a will, the will should name who will be responsible for administering the estate (the “Executor” or “Personal Representative”). If there is not a will, South Carolina law determines who is “in line” to handle this responsibility. It is usually, but not always, the same as the person deemed next of kin to the decedent.

Having read this information, take a moment to answer the following questions. They will help you prepare and will direct you to the appropriate information below:

- I will be opening a (circle one)    REGULAR ESTATE    SMALL ESTATE
- If it is a regular estate, is there a will? (circle one)    YES    NO
- If yes, who does the will name as Executor or Personal Representative?
- If there is no will, who is the closest living relative to the decedent?

WHEN SHOULD I BEGIN?

Many people are eager to start as soon as possible; others are not emotionally prepared to begin this process. We understand that every family differs and do not set strict requirements as to when you must open the estate. Your answers to the first section above should guide you as to the appropriate time frame to begin the process.

- A regular estate should be opened within 30 days from the date of death, if possible. This guideline is used because state law requires that anyone possessing a valid will turn it over to the court within this amount of time. Any will held longer than 10 years becomes invalid. Regardless of whether there was a will, no estate may be opened more than 10 years after the decedent’s death.
- The second type of estate, the small estate, applies only to those decedents who owned no real property, and whose entire assets are worth less than $25,000. A small estate cannot be filed until more than 30 days have passed since the date of death.

HOW LONG WILL THIS PROCESS TAKE?

Small estates can be opened and closed in one day. The person paying the funeral expenses should contact the court and everything will be handled the day of the appointment. Remember, this procedure applies only when there is no real property, and the total of all personal belongings is less than $25,000.

Regular estates must remain open until the expiration of the creditor claim period (one year from death or eight months from the date the first notice to creditors is published in the newspaper). Once this period expires and all required documents are filed and assets transferred, an estate may be closed.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Our office will be happy to assist you in preparation of the documents necessary to begin the estate. Please complete these worksheets and return them to the Court to meet with a clerk to begin the estate process.

If you live out of state or are unable to come in to meet with a clerk, we will assist you by mail.

If you wish to complete estate paperwork without the assistance of our office, you are welcome to do so. You may contact an attorney of your choice for assistance or you may complete the paperwork yourself. Please see below for a list of required items for uncontested cases. Forms are available at www.sccourts.org/forms.

 If yes, amount: $ _____
 From: _____ Payable to: _____
- Inheritance to be received by decedent? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, describe:
 _____
- Bank account(s), Certificates of Deposit (CDs), etc. in decedent's name only (or in name of decedent and someone who died before decedent):

Exact Name(s) on Account	Type of Account (checking, savings, CD, etc.) and Last 4 Digits of Account Number	Bank/Company Name	Amount	Value of Decedent's Interest

- Other (include any benefit checks or other checks or instruments payable to decedent):
 _____
 _____

<sup>2</sup> An account is presumed to be a right-of-survivorship asset if it is (1) in the name of the decedent "OR" another person; or (2) owned by the decedent and another person as "joint tenants with right of survivorship" or "JTROS;" or (3) is owned by a husband and wife. Presumptions may be overcome by clear and convincing evidence.

D. PART 1 – INSURANCE PAYABLE TO THE ESTATE (or payable to a beneficiary who died before decedent):

BENEFICIARY NAME	COMPANY NAME & POLICY NUMBER	VALUE

PART 2 – INSURANCE PAYABLE TO A LIVING BENEFICIARY – OPTIONAL TO LIST

E. JOINTLY OWNED PROPERTY (WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP) – OPTIONAL TO LIST
Jointly Owned Bank Accounts, Etc. (with Right of Survivorship).

- Household Goods/Furnishings/Other Personal Property if Decedent Died after June 24, 2010 and Left Surviving Spouse.<sup>4</sup> If decedent died before June 24, 2010 and/or did not leave a surviving spouse, list household goods/furnishings in Section F on the next page:

---

---

---

- Other Jointly Owned Property (vehicles, etc.):

---

<sup>3</sup> For real property to be joint with right of survivorship, the deed must have survivorship language, e.g., "to John Doe and Jane Doe and then to the survivor of the two of them." A deed to "John Doe and Jane Doe and their heirs and assigns forever" is NOT joint with survivorship and should be listed in Section A above.

<sup>4</sup> For individuals with a date of death after June 24, 2010 who die leave a surviving spouse, State law now presumes that tangible personal property in the joint possession or control of the decedent and surviving spouse at the time of decedent's death is owned by decedent and surviving spouse as joint tenants with right of survivorship unless ownership is evidenced otherwise. Exceptions: tangible personal property acquired by either spouse before marriage, acquired by either spouse by gift or inheritance during marriage; used by decedent in trade or business in which surviving spouse has no interest; held for another; or devised in a written statement or list disposing of tangible personal property. This presumption may be overcome by a preponderance of the evidence. For more information, see S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-805.

- Any Jointly Owned Property owned with a former spouse:

F. MISCELLANEOUS TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

Vehicles (auto, etc.)
Boats, motors, and trailers
Mobile Homes
Farm Equipment

	Description	Approximate Value
Business Owned
Jewelry (of value)
Collectibles
Other (list)

G. TRANSFERS DURING DECEDENT'S LIFETIME

List here any of the following types of transfers that Decedent made during his lifetime:

- (1) Any substantial gift made within the last 3 years;
- (2) Any trust which will pay benefits to another after Decedent's death;
- (3) Any transfer of real estate in which Decedent transferred the real estate to another but retained a life estate;
- (4) Bank accounts, U.S. Government or corporate stocks or bonds that were in the name of the Decedent but are Payable on Death (or "P.O.D.") to another; or
- (5) Any other transfer which decedent made that was not intended to take effect until his death.

Description of Asset	Transferree(s)/Beneficiary(ies)	Value

H. POWERS OF APPOINTMENT

List here any real or personal property over which Decedent held a Power of Appointment. A "power of appointment" is the power to sell, mortgage, encumber, or otherwise exercise rights of ownership over some asset which is the property of another.<sup>5</sup>

- Did Decedent hold a Power of Appointment given by another? _____
If yes, bring a copy of the document creating the Power.
- Did Decedent hold any of the following titles at the time of death?

Guardian (court appointed)? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____ Custodian? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____ Conservator? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____ Trustee? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____
 Estate Representative? Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____
 Other? (specify) _____ Yes _____ No _____ If yes, for whom? _____

<sup>5</sup> For example, if John Doe leaves his home to his wife Mary for life (a "life estate"), and at her death the property goes to their daughter Susan, but authorizes Mary to sell or mortgage the property during the lifetime if she believes it's necessary, then the power to sell or mortgage the property is a power of appointment since Mary only owns a life estate in the property and the property is actually the property of daughter Susan.

I. ANNUITIES AND RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS PAYABLE TO ESTATE (You must list any owned by decedent and payable to estate; it is your option whether to include any accounts with a named beneficiary)
