F. GENERAL CONTRACTUAL REQUIREMENTS

1. ABANDONMENT OR DELAY: If the work to be done under this contract shall be abandoned or delayed by the Dealer, or if at any time the County shall be of the opinion and shall so certify in writing that work has been abandoned or delayed by the Dealer, the County may annul the contract or any part thereof if the Dealer fails to resolve the matter within thirty (30) days of written notice.
2. BIDDER'S COOPERATION: The Bidder shall maintain regular communications with the Purchasing Manager and shall actively cooperate in all matters pertaining to this contract.
3. RESPONSIBILITY: The Bidder shall at all times observe and comply with all federal, state, local, and municipal laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations in any manner affecting the purchase.
4. NON-APPROPRIATION / SUBSTITUTION PERMITTED: If the Colleton County Council fails to appropriate or authorize the expenditure of sufficient funds to make said purchase or if a lawful order issued in, or for any fiscal year during the term of the agreement, reduces the funds appropriated or authorized in such amounts as to preclude making the payments set out therein, the agreement shall terminate on the date said funds are no longer available without any termination charges or other liability incurring to County. Following any such non-appropriation, the master lease agreement shall contain no limitation on the County's ability to replace the equipment financed with any other equipment.

This promise to indemnify shall include bodily injuries or death occurring to Bidder's employees and any person, directly or indirectly employed by Offeror (including without limitation any employee of any subcontractor), the County's employees, the employees of any other independent contractor, or occurring to any member of the public. When the County submits notice, Dealer shall promptly defend any aforementioned action.

6. The prescribed limits of insurance set forth herein shall not limit the extent of the Dealer's responsibility under this Section. The terms and conditions contained in this Section shall survive the termination of any resulting agreement or the suspension of the Work hereunder. Additionally, the County will not provide indemnity to the successful Bidder. Failure to comply with this section may result in your request for a bid to be deemed non-responsive.

7. FORCE MAJEURE: The Bidder shall not be liable for any excess costs if the failure to perform the resulting agreement arises out of causes beyond the control and without fault or negligence of the Dealer. Such causes may include, but are not restricted to, acts of God or of the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather; but in every case the failure to perform must be beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Dealer.

The prevailing party shall be entitled to attorney's fees and all costs of said litigation.

The Bidder shall not assign any money due or to become due to him under the said agreement without the prior written consent of the County.
12. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION: The successful Bidder will take affirmative action in complying with all Federal and State requirements concerning fair employment and treatment of all employees, without regard or discrimination by reason of race, color, religion, sex, national origin or physical handicap.
13. FAILURE TO DELIVER GOODS IN ACCORDANCE WITH TERMS & CONDITIONS: In case of failure to deliver goods in accordance with the purchase terms and conditions, Colleton County, after due oral or written notice, may procure substitute goods or services from other sources and hold the dealer responsible for any resulting additional purchasing and administrative costs. This remedy shall be in addition to any other remedies which Colleton County may have.

Unless otherwise agreed to by the County and the Bidder, the Purchase Agreement shall become null and void on the last day of the fiscal year for which appropriations were received.
